

Praise for The CSB In Concert

If you missed The Copper Street Brass last week then you missed a lot...they blew the roof off the place!

-Faulk County Register, Faulkton Area Arts Council Series

Thank you for the outstanding performance! People are still talking about it! Words cannot effectively describe the joy and high musicianship we experienced with the concert by The Copper Street Brass. The program had ultimate variety and musicality, and was enjoyed by all who attended.

-Lee Afdahl, "A Festival of Music" Concert Series, First Presbyterian, Rochester MN

The Copper Street Brass is an exciting new group on the brass scene. Their original, inventive programming appeals to audiences of all ages.

-Allan Dean, Trumpet, The St. Louis Brass Quintet, professor at Yale University

The CSB is a group whose smart programming and bright personalities have taken the brass quintet to a new level. The ensemble has gone from strength to strength.

-Steve Staruch, Host, Classical Minnesota Public Radio

The CSB can do it all. From in your face Tower of Power-style aggressive brass virtuosity to subtle symphonic nuance, The CSB delivers.

-Matthew Zimmerman, Wild Sound Studio, Minneapolis, MN

They are five individually superb players, and their group sound is tremendously exciting!

-Matt Greer, Director of Music at St. John's Methodist, Albuquerque, NM

In terms of relevancy and genius, The CSB is like the "South Park" of brass quintets!

-Bill Morelock, Host, Classical Minnesota Public Radio
